Logansport Had $1 Million Fire

LOGANSPORT, UPI — Fire swept the J. C. Penney Department Store and ruined or damaged seven other shops in a quarter-block area of downtown Logansport Friday night and early today.

Damage was estimated at more than $1 million.

The blaze broke out in Penney's shortly before 10 p.m. and gained such headway, threatening adjacent business, that help was summoned from Peru, Kokomo, Bunker Hill Air Force Base, Galveston, Twelve Mile, Walton and New Walton.

The blaze was believed to have started in or near an oil heating plant in the Penney basement while temperatures were in the teens above zero.

About 150 firemen fought the flames. Two were injured slightly.

Mayor Oscar Beasey declared a city emergency and said the city would seek federal disaster relief funds.

Transit Strike In Second Week

NEW YORK UPI — The city transit strike ground into its second week today with the Transit Authority TA and the union taking harder positions that dimmed hopes for a quick solution to the crippling transportation crisis.

Despite earlier reports of agonizingly slow progress, statements by spokesmen for the TA and the striking Transit Workers Union TWU shed a pall of gloom over contract negotiations.

When talks temporarily ended early this morning, Sylvester Garrett, a member of the three-man mediation panel, wearily announced: "I cannot truthfully say that there has been any great progress." Garrett said that the parties to the complicated and delicate talks would try again later in the morning.

On Friday President Johnson, responding to a personal plea by New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, announced a series of federal measures designed to alleviate the impact of the subway bus tieup.

These ranged from low-interest loans for small businesses affected by the strike to housing arrangements for doctors and nurses, furnishing emergency medical supplies, and setting up a plan for making unemployment insurance claims by mail.

Soviets Will Aid North Viet Nam

MOSCOW UPI — Alexander Shelepin's aid mission to Hanoi may escalate the Soviet role in the Viet Nam war, informed Western sources said today.

The Soviet team, including a rocket specialist, pledged "unwavering" support Friday night to defeat American "aggression."

North Vietnamese Premier Pham Van Dong, welcoming the Russians, denounced President Johnson's peace campaign. He vowed to "smash" the United States.

Shelepin and the Hanoi leader pointedly ignored the two-week-old lull in U. S. bombing raids.

Col. Vladimir Tolubko, deputy chief of Soviet strategic rocket troops, may have gone to Viet Nam to see what is wrong with the performance of SAM anti-aircraft missiles, the sources said.

The Chinese have accused Russia of sending "obsolete" equipment to Hanoi.

Pleads Guilty

Buryl Guy, 42, Cloverdale, Route 2, pleaded guilty to driving a motor vehicle while his license was suspended when arraigned in the Putnam Circuit Court Friday.

Guy was arrested in December by State Trooper Jack Hamilton.

Judge Hamilton order Guy back to the Putnam County Jail and he will return to court Monday for disposition of his case.

Ralph C. Fry has enrolled in the Agriculture Short Course at Purdue University which will be held from Jan. 3-Feb. 25, having been chosen from the 5th District to receive the scholarship grant from the Farm Bureau Foundation, Inc.

Ralph was also awarded a scholarship grant from the Roachdale Bank and Trust Co. to attend the same course.

The District Farm Bureau women's leaders with the help of all county and local women leaders each year sponsor a special scholarship grant program for young people of their respective districts, two from each district, one boy and one girl.

The young people are selected on their activities and interests in their respective districts and must be a member of a Farm Bureau family.

Ralph has been active in 4-H club work for ten years, having completed fifty-five projects. He is the 1966 president of the Putnam Co. 4-H Junior Leaders Organization.

He has been a member of the Rural Youth Club and is now serving as Vice President of the 5th District Rural Youth. He is a member and officer in the newly organized Town & Country Young Adult Club.

He is an active member of the Parkersburg Christian Church and youth group. He also is serving as Vice President of the Hanging Rock Christian Assembly Youth Rally.

Ralph is a 1965 graduate of Roachdale High School and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Noble C. Fry of Roachdale, Route 1.

Boys Held For Dozen Burglaries

HAMMOND—UPI — Three teen-agers were jailed Friday on charges they committed a dozen burglaries and caused an estimated $7,000 damage in vandalism to four schools and a National Guard Armory.

Authorities said Mitchell Ramirez, 17, Hammond, who they said has been arrested 35 times since he was 9 years old, admitted the crimes and implicated Richard Riley, 18, and William Allee, 19, Hammond.

All three were held in Lake County Jail at Crown Point.

Authorities said the two also are suspected of stealing a car, using it in a Valparaiso burglary, and then setting it afire when they returned to Hammond.

S. Viet Forces Retake Outposts

SAIGON UPI — Communist guerrillas raided three government outposts about eight miles south of Saigon today, a U. S. military spokesman announced.

Intense Communist fire forced the defenders to flee at the time of the attack. But government forces counterattacked shortly after daylight and recaptured the outposts.

Vietnamese casualties were described as "light," the government spokesman said.

The outposts were Long Hau, Cau Sat, and Long Huu, all within five miles of the district town of Can Duoc.

In other action U. S. B52 bombers smashed Viet Cong positions about 28 miles northwest of Saigon in a daylight raid.

In the Mekong Delta, the U. S. Army's 173rd Airborne Brigade and accompanying Australian troops wound up a search-and-destroy operation in which 130 Communists were killed and 43 captured.

Draft Is Cut For February

WASHINGTON UPI—UPI — The Selective Service System will provide about 29,400 men for the Army and Marines in February, a 9,000-man drop from this month's draft quota.

The Defense Department issued the draft quota Friday. It said 26,400 of the inductees would go to the Army and 3,000 would become Marines. Draft calls to meet the nation's expanded commitment in South Viet Nam have been on the wane since reaching a peak of 40,200 men for December.

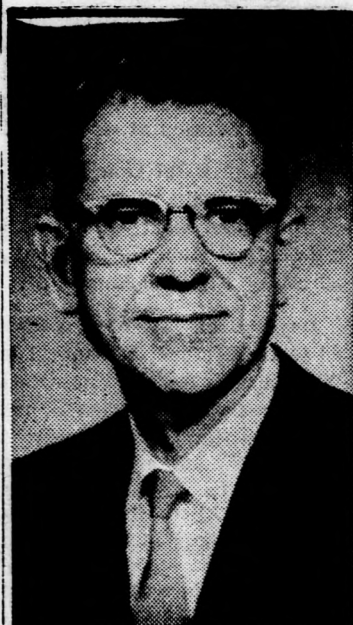

Mishaps Decline

WASHINGTON UPI — President Johnson's Committees for Traffic Safety says the growing rate of traffic fatalities was checked substantially in 1965 through greatly increased accident prevention efforts.

The committee, headed by New York newspaper publisher William Randolph Hearst Jr. reported "The death rate per 100 million miles of travel was reduced slightly, according to preliminary reports: 5.3 1965 compared to 5.4 for the same 1964 period."

Baptist Youth Will Hold Sunday Rally

Dr. James B. Johnson, President Putnam County Tuberculosis Association, 1949-1951, says:

"The control of tuberculosis even in this age of advanced medical technology remains a difficult and important work. Physicians, health departments, and the general public owe much to the constant and patient labor of the Putnam County Tuberculosis Association and its many volunteer workers."

Adding further concern for support of the county-wide program of the TB association, Dr. Johnson concludes, "With a minimum of overhead, this organization directs a constant war against the resourceful tuberculosis germ. To be controlled, tuberculosis must be always considered a threat to our health. If we become lazy or complacent, TB could become a serious threat to our individual person, family and community."

Even though Christmas has passed, continue to support your local TB association. Be sure to use all your Seals. Give generously to make this county and nation a healthier place in which to live.

Dr. Johnson is presently serving as a member of the Putnam County Tuberculosis Association board of directors, representing the medical profession.

political leaders" of Tuskegee, including the Alabama Exchange Bank.

"We're gonna slip up on those white folks," said Wednell Paris, 20, of Tuskegee.

Paris urged the students, if necessary, to skip classes. He told them, "what good is your education if, when you get out of school, you have to go to the white man for everything you want?"

The vast majority of the students ignored indirect appeals from the school president, Dr. Alec Foster, and the dean of students, Gene Phillips, to "act wisely" before they make another move. Foster urged moderation and suggested students did not have to march into the downtown areas. Phillips told them they should try not to miss classes.

In a brief speech to the students, Foster described the racial atmosphere in Tuskegee as "very fluid and difficult." He said a meeting Friday of about 40 representatives from the student body, government agencies, Tuskegee faculty and the city council had made some progress, including the call of special session of the council next Tuesday to discuss the possibility of passage of a "non-discriminatory ordinance" to desegregate all facilities.

broke up a Communist attempt to ambush an American military convoy early today.

The explosion of an apparently controlled mine in front of the lead truck signaled the start of the attack three miles west of the Saigon city limits.

One member of a Vietnamese mine - sweeping detail was killed and another was wounded by the mine explosion. There were no American casualties, and none of the six trucks in the convoy was damaged.

Communists concealed along the road opened fire the moment the mine went off. But they fled when machinegunners in an escort jeep returned their fire.

An armed U. S. helicopter and about 200 Vietnamese Marines sped to the scene but were unable to catch up with the fleeing Communist force.

In the Mekong delta, elements of the Vietnamese 21st Division killed 68 Communists in fierce fighting before noon Friday, a military spokesman said today.

TV in review

By Dick Du Brow

HOLLYWOOD UPI — Life along Russia's Volga River was the subject Tuesday night of a "CBS Reports" hour which the network said involved both cooperation and harassment by the Soviets. It was no cotton-candy travelogue.

It was, on the other hand, hardly what American journalism would call a crusading document, or an expose — but in view of its frank comments about various aspects of Soviet society, one cannot help but wonder about the reaction of the Russians, who have proven themselves sensitive to U. S. television.

The program's publicity described it as "a comprehensive, searching look at the Russia few Americans have seen or know much about—the villages and cities along the banks of her greatest river, the 2,300-mile Volga. Filmed over a two-month period, the broadcast probes some of the Soviet Union's vast and complex problems . . ."

The producer was Gene Deporis, with Marvin Kalb as the reporter and writer. The harassment referred to by the network was specifically mentioned in the program. In addition, there were pointed comments concerning such areas as Soviet economic "backwardness," apartment house construction, roads, conformity and displays of "organized affection."

There was also a comment about the fact that in a "classless society," a river steamer offered three classes of travel. Another segment dealt with a top steelworker who, as a leader at his factory, had an apartment, a television set, a country home and a car. "CBS Reports" said he offered the information that most workers have such apartments, his was private, strictly for his own family — but the program then discounted this allegation by noting how many shared apartments are in use.

The program also took note of pleasant aspects of life along the Volga as well as some improving areas of Soviet society. There were shots of a beach, of singing on a riverboat, of a production of "My Fair Lady."

From a production viewpoint, this was an especially fascinating hour of "CBS Reports" — for the subject was one that was almost ideal for a documentary. It offered a chance to see something new — and in a country of unique interest to Americans. It offered a chance to combine a study of essentials with a look at beautifully photographed scenery that was important to the basic structure of the hour.

Very frankly, I cannot remember ever being bored by any video show that gave me the opportunity to see a part of the world I had never seen before. But this hour was able to accomplish tasks on a number of levels — and in color for those fortunate enough to see the program that way. NBC-TV, by the way, announced some time ago that it will present a one-hour color program filmed in the Siberian city of Irkutsk under a formal agreement with the Soviet Union.

Sheinwold on Bridge

Don't Be Satisfied With Only One Play
By Alfred Sheinwold

When 18 famous experts played a round-robin last November to determine the North American team for 1966, you might suppose that the bridge would be very good. It was, but there were also some amazing boners.

and he eventually had to lose another heart trick.

This is the way you might expect to see the hand played in the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge and Nature Study Society. An expert should play the hand better even in his sleep.

NO RUSH

South should not rush to lead the singleton heart from dummy. Instead, he should cash the top spades and ruff a spade. Only then is it time to lead a heart and take the singleton out of dummy.

If the defenders fail to lead trumps, South can make his contract by ruffing two hearts in the dummy. If they do lead trumps, South wins the second trump with dummy's king and ruffs another spade.

This sets up dummy's last spade. South ruffs one heart with dummy's last trump and cashes the good spade to get rid of his other heart.

The correct line of play gives South two chances for his contract instead of staking everything on ruffing two hearts in the dummy. Two chances are better than one.

ANSWER: Bid two hearts. You plan to raise spades vigorously at your next turn, thus hitting at your unusual distribution.

The Lighter Side

WASHINGTON UPI — At this time there is always a lot of talk about "starting the year off right."

It is based on the ridiculous notion that if the year begins on a constructive note, the pattern will continue. Actually, as

On The Farm Front

WASHINGTON UPI — The Agriculture Department estimates the costs of farming in 1965 will total about $30 billion, up about 3 per cent from farm expenses in 1964.

The department said the increase is due mainly to higher prices for goods and services used in farming, particularly feeder livestock, and another gain in overhead costs such as interest and taxes.

The expenses for commodities and services on non-farm origin are almost 3 per cent above 1964, while outlays for farm-produced items — feed, seed, and livestock — are up closer to 5 per cent, the department said.

A consolation is that cash receipts from farming also are larger and will more than offset the gain in costs, the department said.

Farm production expenses in 1966 are more likely to rise again, the department predicted. But the increase is not likely to be as much as in 1965. The agency said the amount spent on several important items in the farmer's budget will be larger, especially for fertilizer and pesticides. A gain also is likely in 1966 in the costs of depreciation, taxes, interest, and insurance.

Agricultural Research Service scientists are developing miniature white hogs for use as research animals. They are about one-third the weight of a normal hog.

ARS said the little hogs will aid the drug testing program of the Food and Drug Administration and also may help scientists learn more about hog nutrition, physiology, and biochemistry. Also, they offer some farmers a way to increase income by raising research animals for investigators at many research, testing, and assaying laboratories.

we all know from experience, it rarely works out that way.

Various charts and graphs show that the average life span of a new year's resolution is approximately 14 days, give or take Saturday night.

The result is that we concentrate within one two-week period a full 12 month's supply of high purposes and fortitude. This tends to make the year lopsided and unbalanced.

The country would be better off if we staggered our resolutions in an orderly fashion, releasing a uniform amount at fixed intervals over the entire calendar.

There being 26 letters in the alphabet or exactly half the number of weeks in a year, I propose the following system be adopted:

People whose last names begin with "A" would abide by their resolutions during the first two weeks of January, as usual. Those whose surname initial is "B" would take the next two weeks. And so on down the line.

Thus, during any given period, a sizable percentage of the population would be living up to their good intentions. You can easily see what an improvement that would be over previous conditions.

I'm not too sharp at mathematics, but I figure my time would come during the fortnight of Oct. 30-Nov. 12.

In the interest of practicing what I preach, I have started the New Year in my normal dissolute manner, but I have already drafted a set of resolutions that I intend to adhere to next fall.

1. I will not sit around hoping that the autumn leaves in my yard will be blown over into my neighbor's yard. If necessary, I will rake them into his yard.

2. I will not wait until the first snowstorm to put snow tires on my car. At some point during this period I will tell my wife to change tires.

3. I will not awaken my family on Veterans Day by blowing a bugle unless I can find where they hid it.

4. I will not put the lawnmower away for the winter before the grass stops growing.

5. I will keep my head when all about me are losing theirs and blaming it on me.

If the other W's in the land are equally resolute, Oct. 30-Nov. 12 will be a fortnight to remember.

Foreign News Commentary

By Phil Newsom

Three revolts in less than two weeks not only demonstrate the continuing instability of too many newly independent African countries but also the decline in the political fortunes of Red China.

Beginning Dec. 22 and continuing into this week, military coups have topped the governments of Dahomey, the Central African Republic and Upper Volta.

Each represented a blow to Red China.

In Dahomey, the military government of Gen. Christophe Soglo suspended relations with Red China and gave the staff of the embassy 72 hours to leave the country.

In the Central African Republic, the new government closed the Chinese Embassy in Bangui and ordered a census of all Communist Chinese.

Bangui had been one of the largest Red Chinese propaganda centers in Africa. It was the recent scene of a large Communist Chinese industrial trade fair where the Chinese sold cut-rate goods ranging from textiles to motorcycles.

In the Upper Volta, where President Maurice Yameogo surrendered with apparent relief his reins of government to the military, there were reports the army acted to prevent a take-over by pro-Peking sympathizers. The president had accused both Peking and Ghana of plotting his overthrow.

There were, of course, other reasons for the actions of the military, including popular unrest over economic conditions and the usual political, tribal and religious differences.

But a distrust and a dislike for the policies of Red China were common factors.

Within the past year, criticisms of Red China's subversion policies also have come from other African nations, notably Kenya, Niger and Malawi. Burundi broke relations with the Chinese on the charge that Peking had backed an anti-government coup.

The Red Chinese also lost out in the Congo where a jungle revolt against the Leopoldville government had been supported in part by Chinese weapons.

The Chinese influence remains strong in Tanzania where U. S. diplomats have been accused of spying and expelled and through whose port of Dar es Salaam most of the Chinese weapons and propaganda have entered central Africa.

The Red Chinese also remain a force in Brazzaville, capital of the former French Congo.

The Africans may not agree with U. S. policies in South Viet Nam, but neither do they buy the Chinese argument that the war in Viet Nam symbolizes a new colonialism by which the Western powers hope to re-occupy Africa.

But least of all do they like it when the Chinese declare that Africa is ripe for revolution—which could only be against governments now in power.

The Harvard football teams from 1886-1891 scored 3,622 points and held the opposition to 187 in 74 games.

HARDWOOD HIGHLIGHTS

By Frank Puckett Jr., Sports Editor

A few interesting notes you might want to know . . . of the six teams in the county that compete among themselves and with other teams outside the county, three have not been beaten outside county competition—Bainbridge, Cloverdale and Fillmore . . . Reelsville has dropped only one game outside the county—to Van Buren . . . Roachdale has been defeated by New Ross and Montezuma . . . and Russellville has lost five out-of-county games . . . county competition must be tough.

New entries in the local Sectional, Cascade, North Salem and Rockville . . . the Cadets have fallen to Cloverdale . . . Fillmore . . . and Greencastle . . . they might have to contend with one of these teams again at tourney time . . . North Salem fell to the wayside when they battled Roachdale, 62-44 and Reelsville 48-46 . . . but they beat Russellville 54-51 . . . Rockville's Roos were sent home by Greencastle with a 72-59 defeat . . . looks good for Sectional-wise competition if all three new entries have been beaten at least once by old sectional rivals.

Where are the Sectional champs going if they hit paydirt? . . . Greencastle Sectional champs will travel to Covington where they will vie with winners from Covington, Crawfordville, and Kentland . . . the winner from there will go to Lafayette and then to Indianapolis for the big one . . . IF Reelsville or Cloverdale come out at Brazil where they will compete with Clay and Owen County foes they will go to Terre Haute and meet with winners from Bloomington, Sullivan, and Terre Haute . . . then the long trip to Evansville . . . then to the big meeting place in the middle . . . Hinkle Field House.

Did you know . . . Greencastle's Tiger Cubs are tied for first place in the Western Indiana Basketball Conference with Gerstmeyer and Wiley of Terre Haute . . . that hosts such teams as Honey Creek High, Linton High, Schulte, State High, Sullivan, West Vigo, Wiley, Brazil, Clinton, Garfield and Gerstmeyer . . . Fillmore's talented Cardinals hold an undisputed first place in the hotly-contested Big Four Conference that includes such teams as New Ross, Bainbridge, North Salem, Granville Wells, and others . . . Bainbridge holds a tie for second in the same conference with New Ross . . . Reelsville is one of the few teams that have beaten Gerstmeyer this year . . . and they did it on the Terre Haute power's own floor . . . Cloverdale's Clovers are one of the last 15 undefeated teams in the state of Indiana this year . . . how's that for county competition at its toughest?

County Tourney drawings will be posted in your January 14 issue of The Daily Banner . . . the tourney will host Fillmore, Reelsville, Cloverdale, Russellville, Bainbridge, and Roachdale . . . favorites such as Clover Rod Hervey, Cardinals John Glaze and 6-9 Wayne Bright, hot-handed Ron Richardson from Russellville, Paul Hill and Larry Clones of the Roachdale Hawks, 6-7 Indian Joe Williams, and area leading scorer Pointer Larry Steele, along with the rest of the county prep cagers.

DePauw Tigers Face Pumas Tonight In ICC Road Game

Its winning streak shattered at four by Ball State, DePauw's basketball team hits the road again tonight for Rensselaer.

Waiting at the end of the line will be St. Joseph's 4-6 Pumas who wrecked a good Wabash team Wednesday 102-72 on the same floor in Crawfordville where Wabash measured DePauw a month ago, 82-64.

Two peppery, lightening like guards are the gears of St. Joe's attack. Tom Crowley is firing at 15.0 ppg and his cross court mate, Ken Broussard, is pumping them in 20 at a time.

The loss of 6-4 center Larry Yeagley, sidelined permanently along with his 14.6 average apparently hasn't cramped the Pumas' style.

They lost to Butler 86-65 while making the transition but bagged Wabash by 30 with sophomore Denny Potts (6-3) and John Flick (6-5) alternating. Puma forwards are 6-1 footballer-basketballer Terry Davison and 6-3 Fred Farley.

Only change likely in the Tiger lineup is a switch at guard where 6-1 Denny Barrett has stepped in to replace slumping Dan Schermer, 5-9 guard who has started for DePauw since the third game of last season.

Otherwise it will be Jack Hogan opposite Barrett, Tom McGurk at center, and Morgan

Everson and Stan Bahler at forward. Bahler will be minus the heavy tape job that protected a jammed finger in the Ball State game.

After tonight's fourth ICC clash the Tigers will be idle until going to Lake Forest College January 21.

New Ross Clips Russellville Bees

Russellville's Bees dropped a big one to foe New Ross on the home floor last night after rallying to a 29-28 half time lead over the Big Four Conference team, 80-64.

It was the eleventh outing for the Bees and the seventh loss of the season.

Visiting New Ross pushed their way into a 17-12 first quarter lead, but the fired up Bees, paced by hot-handed Ron Richardson, rallied to come-back and outscore their guests 17-11 to take a one-point lead at the half time intermission, 29-28.

Tough New Ross shook of the rally in the early minutes of the third period and outpaced their host 28-17 in the third quarter and 24-18 in the final fourth period to claim their 16 point victory.

New Ross had four men in double figures with Haffner hitting 22, Williams 20, Smith 15, and Harrison 12 points. The Bees were paced by hot-handed Ron Richardson who dumped in 27 points.

Russellville will meet Reelsville at Russellville next week.

Tiger Cubs Win Streak Ran To Eleven Straight

By FRANK PUCKETT, JR.,
Banner Sports Editor

Holding it down to a 19 point spread, the Greencastle Tiger Cubs averaged a 35-point whipping they took from Cascade's Cadets last year as they played host to the new sectional entries in the uptown gym last night, 76-57.

The victory made it 11 in-a-row for the Tiger Cub crew against only one loss of the season to Attica while the Cadets were forced to make their season record 3-7. It was the third time this season the Cadets have met defeat at the hands of a Putnam County team.

Hitting the Hendricks County representatives with the "Mac" press from the starting gun, Greencastle fought their way through a somewhat slow first quarter to emerge with a 19-7 lead.

The Cadets looked as though they were ready for the press, but the Tiger Cub offensive was just a little too much to match as the Cubs fired in 8 for 15 first period field goals while the Cadets could manage only 1 out of 10 tries.

Greencastle shot an overall 28 for 62 from the field for a 45 percent. Cascade was able to push in only 1 field goal the first quarter, 6 the second, 3 the third, and 7 the fourth for a 17 of 54 total giving them a low .313 shooting percentage from the field.

The Cubs held a sixteen point lead at half time, 36-20. They outscored Cascade in the third period 17-12, but the Cadets came back in a strong fourth to outscore the host 25-23. But, it was too late for the already downed Cadets.

Jim Chadd paced the scoring by tossing in 10 field goals and 7 free throws for a 27 point performance while Mike Troyer added 21 points to the Cub cause. High man for Cascade was Weliewer with 17.

The Cubs will travel to Schulte next week for what should prove to be a real battle.

Cards Clip Indians; Record Now 8-2

Fillmore grabbed an early lead over the visiting Reelsville Indians last night and refused to back off as they defeated their South Putnam sisters, 73-52.

Both county teams went into the contest holding identical season records of 7-2, Fillmore bowing out to Cloverdale twice this season and Reelsville dropping one to Cloverdale and Van Buren earlier in the season.

The Cardinals had nine men in the scoring column as coach Darrell Hoyer substituted freely all through the contest while the Indians relied heavily on the 22-point performance of 6-7 pivot man Joe Williams.

Coach Charles McClure fired his determined team into a zone that collapsed on the big Fillmore pivot man 6-9 Wayne Bright. With the zone focusing on the big Cardinal man guard Jim Craig cut loose with a barrage of buckets that gave him a five field goal first-quarter.

Doubling the Indian output in the first period 14-7, the Cards went ahead to score 20 points in the second quarter for a 34-23 half time lead. Hitting 19 points in the third period and 20 in the final quarter the Cards went ahead to down their opponents 21 points.

Hot-handed Craig tossed in 15 points while Glaze added an equal of 15 for the Cards. Williams paced the Indians with 22 points.

Fillmore will travel to Coal Creek Central tonight where they will meet Linden. The Cards are now 8-2 while the Indians are 7-3.

Balanced Scoring Leads Way For Bainbridge Win Over Roachdale Hawks

Bainbridge racked up victory number 11 last night against two defeats of the season by knocking off county rival Roachdale on the Pointer floor, 87-52.

It was the first game in the last seven outings that the Pointers have dropped under 90 points.

A balanced scoring attack led the way for the Bainbridge crew as they took a 17-11 first period margin, rolled to a 45-30 half time stop, and scored 42 points to the Hawks 22 points in the last half.

Four men hit the double figure column hard as Pointers Steele, Judy, McFarland and Rossok swished the nets for 25, 14, 12, and 22 points respectively.

Bainbridge cut rebounded their guest 50-32 with 6-5 Steele grabbing off 21 rebounds and Rossok man-handling the boards with 10. The Pointer height advantage towed a Roachdale has only one boy over six feet.

Dropping in 35 of 91 shots from the field the Pointers hit a low .384 percentage while the Hawks hit on 13 of 47 tries for

"Man On Go" Is Subject To Heart Attacks

SAN FRANCISCO UPI—The aggressive, ambitious "man on the go" is the fellow to watch for a heart attack, a massive research study has disclosed.

A startling 85 per cent of heart victims in the 39-49 age bracket were men with "a certain emotional complex," the study found. They were the ones who, before their attacks, had been tagged as having "excessive drive, aggressiveness and ambition... preoccupation with competitive activity, vocational deadlines and similar pressures."

The first large-scale effort to find out whether emotional makeup can signal danger to the heart was conducted by a team of doctors at Mount Zion Hospital here. The findings were published in the Journal of the American Medical Association.

The doctors concluded that whether a man is a hustler or in a fast-paced job has a "profoundly important" bearing on whether or not he is likely to suffer a heart attack.

Back in 1960 the Mount Zion doctors selected 3,524 healthy men aged 39 to 59. Each was carefully examined and tagged for such things as high blood pressure and fat which are sometimes associated with heart disease.

The men also were interviewed and classified according to income, job and emotional makeup. Advertising men, airline pilots, space engineers, newspapermen and others with a highly competitive personality went into "Type A." Those relatively free of urgency in their outlook and jobs went into "Type B."

Afterwards 70 of the men suffered heart attacks. Fifty-four of these turned out to be from "Type A," and 16 in "Type B." By age, 85 per cent of the victims 39 to 49 and 72 percent of those 49 to 59 were among the "go-getters."

Among nine of the heart victims who died, eight were from "Type A."

The researchers found, as expected, that blood protein, blood fat and high blood pressure were signs of a tendency to heart trouble.

Rhodesia Will Face Rationing

SALISBURY UPI—New and drastic rationing goes into effect in Rhodesia next Tuesday, limiting motorists to only one or two gallons of gasoline a week. Flying clubs were banned completely.

A government announcement Thursday said the new rationing was made necessary by the economic sanctions imposed by Britain. Rhodesia issued a unilateral declaration of independence from Britain Nov. 11 and the London government subsequently clamped an oil embargo and other sanctions on the breakaway colony.

Under the new regulations, motorists whose cars weigh less than 1,750 pounds will be allowed to buy one gallon of gasoline per week. Those with autos weighing between 1,750 and 2,750 pounds will get 1.5 gallons and all heavier cars will get two gallons.

The previous rationing allowed all motorists four gallons per week but black market practices apparently necessitated the new cutbacks.

Commercial airlines will be allowed only half the fuel they usually carry and private planes and members of flying clubs were grounded.

The good Dr. Gallup should poll the people again and soon on the political future of Vice President Hubert Horatio Humphrey. Two polls last month were less than comforting for Humphrey and for his sponsor in the White House. A quick poll now would show whether Humphrey's journey to Asia improved his public image.

The people told Dr. Gallup's questioners that Humphrey did not look to them like a soon-to-be president of the United States. At about the same time Dr. Gallup's pollsters were discovering that considerable number of Americans expect Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., to be nominated for president in 1972.

To a poll-conscious politician such as President Johnson, this was bad news. LBJ's political prestige is tied tightly to Humphrey's political future. It was understood all around in Atlantic City that LBJ meant Humphrey to succeed him in the White House when the President pushed Humphrey front- and -center before the Democratic National Convention. LBJ said Humphrey was the best fitted man in public life to succeed him to the presidency.

The voters appear either to be as unconvinced of Humphrey's greatness or be doubtful of LBJ's ability to pass the White House on to his personal choice as simply as he could bequeath a few millions of dollars to each of his girls. Johnson does not like his ability to be doubted. His unhappiness may be aggravated by Kennedy's role in national politics.

If Johnson is unhappy, Humphrey must be distraught by the fear that there is another Kennedy in Humphrey's past, John F. Kennedy, who effectively blocked the path to the White House and roughed up Humphrey considerably in the process. No political pair on earth has more reason to respect the bare knuckled Kennedys than LBJ and HHH.

These musings on LBJ and his proteges relate directly to the vice president's just concluded journey in Asia. Johnson does not happily share the stage, share power or share popularity with anyone. But the President evidently has come to understand that he has a choice with respect to Humphrey and that he must decide which it will be. Shall he build up his boy against the Kennedy threat or shall he keep his boy in the shadows while Kennedy challenges for center stage?

It is evident the choice has been made. LBJ will build up his boy. The journey to Asia looks like the beginning. It is reasonable to believe that Johnson will find more well publicized assignments for Humphrey. Old timers will note whether LBJ continues to send his personal assistant, Jack Valenti, along with Humphrey to observe HHH's performance and perhaps be handy in any emergency.

There would be precedent for that. Franklin D. Roosevelt and the eastern Democrats were doubtful of John N. Garner during the 1932 presidential campaign. Garner was regarded as a sort of roughneck cowboy. Charley Hand, an ex-newsman turned Tammany politician, was assigned to ride herd on Garner, to read and if necessary to censor any of Garner's public statements. FDR's vice presidential running mate was almost in custodial care. Garner was more amused than offended. He came to like Charley Hand.

Perhaps Valenti and Humphrey will end good friends. In time the President may send Humphrey off on publicity journeys unaccompanied. The Gallup Poll now needed would indicate whether a visit to Asia improved HHH's image. If it did, he will travel some more.

Over-Excited

SHEFFIELD, England UPI—Miss Hannah Smith, Britain's oldest person, collapsed while celebrating her 110th birthday Friday. Her condition was said to be critical.

"There is a danger she may catch pneumonia," said the matron of the Western House Old People's Home where Miss Smith has lived for several years. She had a very hectic day Thursday and I think she got over-excited.

What's The Weather?

This is a New Year and only God knows how much of good or bad will blow our way. The weather vane knows no difference between the points of the compass. Her job is to look straight ahead into whatever winds that blow... and the more severe the wind pressure the greater her accuracy. That's our lesson. God also tries us by pushing strong winds into our face, by laying blocks in our path and by showing temptations before us. Then let us face up to His test. This way He finds out those who love Him; those who seek Heaven; and those who support His Church. Like the weather bird... resign your will to God.

You In The Church
The Church In You — form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.

This message is dedicated to the building of a more spiritual and a greater church going community under the auspices of the Greencastle Ministerial Association and is being sponsored by the following individuals and business firms who want, as their only return, to see more people attending church. The church needs your support. The community needs the church.
